Select Poetry.

DON'T STRIKE A MAN WHEN HE'S DOWN

Oh! don't strike a man when he's down,
No! don't strike a man when he's down;
But lend him a hand,
And help him to stand,
Oh, give him a chance,
Be kindly your glance;
Oh! don't cast him off with a frown;
For which of us know,
In the race here below,
How soon a hard blow
May lay us as low—
Oh! don't strike a man when he's down.

Oh! don't strike a man when he's down,
No! don't strike a man when he's down,
Don't stop to decide,
To scold or to chide,
But leap to his side,
His failing heart guide—
Oh! don't let a sinking man down;
For who here can tell
How soon the rude swell
Of the tide may destroy
All his wealth and his joy,
And he finds himself sinking right down.

Oh! don't strike a man when he's down,
No! don't strike a man when he's down;
Far better be kind,
And try hard to find
Some chord that will bind
Him yet to his kind.
Raise hopes that have been so cast down
A smile in your eye
Will match his deep sigh,
The grasp of your hand
His heart will expand,
And lift a man up when he's down.

Drunkenness and its Curses—No. 3.

BY REFORMATION.

Well you men who hold and fill high position on earth, I suppose stand so safe upon your self dignity, that humble argument is beneath your notice. The man who sold that last bottle of whiskey to him who was carried to the grave a few days since, and the twelve men who signed the petition, and the officials who granted the license, do not feel as comfortable as they might, or would like to be. The tears of that widow and the cries of her innocent children still haunt them, and they are almost ready to cry out what must we do to be saved. The sooner you do this the better, the tears of that widow and the cries of those orphans have already gone up to the bar of God, and are now upon record against you, and nothing but the blood of Christ can erase this record. Remember the soul of him who was carried to the grave a few days ago is forever lost. Not only have you been accessory to the destruction of the body, but the soul also, which is now in eternal torment, for the Bible tells us plainly. "No drunkard can inherit the kingdom of Heaven.

Now where is that soul, and the peace and comfort of that broken hearted mother and her distressed and disgraced children, destroyed forever on earth, or in other words during their natural life? This is compound destruction, and this is the grand result of the license law found upon our statute book and which you have sworn to execute. From whence came this law? Is it of divine authority? That you cannot certainly claim; but the oath taken to support and execute that law, low is it based? Now reflect for a moment.

I know there is different forms of oaths, but who is called to confirm them? I know they are made under these circumstances before men; but in all their different forms, God is called upon for their confirmation, and you call upon the "Supreme Being" to confirm you in executing that, which is the great medium, through, and by which, his Satanical Majesty is daily and hourly dragging down the souls of thousands to an everendless gulf of misery and destruction. Can God confirm such work as this? No certainly not. Remember this when you take your seat at the Lord's table. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils, ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table and of the table of devils. 1st Cor. chapter 10, v. 21st. I do not wish to condemn any one, but set before you all, the truth, so far as I can discover it upon a question of duty. First God, and then man, is among the many injunctions set before us in scripture. That many excellent and worthy men are engaged in the trafic of intoxicating liquors, (and subject to the license law) I do not doubt. Far be it from me to detract in the least from their reputation for excellence. What the particular moral state of any man's mind is, on a subject like this, I pretend not to decide. Yet this is no reason why the moral nature of the act should not be fully and clearly set forth.

Now what is and has been the result of the working's of the license law? Has not the results been clearly and fully established to the entire satisfaction of every christian man and woman in the land? And what are the results? Why! misery, sorrow, tears, destruction of the harmony of thousands upon thousands of families, and in the end eternal death, of both soul and body. And yet, with all this unmistakable evidence before our eyes, of the annual destruction of thousands of human souls, the actors upon this stage of demoralization, death, and destruction, are held up by the christian public in his respectability. Many of them holding high positions in our churches, and claiming to be christians.

The sooner the church becomes awakened, the better, to the deplorable and sunken condition, into which it has fallen. Yea, it is high time to cast out these foul seeds of pollution, and seek pardon from an outraged God. For if judgment begin at the house of God, where must the ungodly and sinner appear? Now need we ask whence comes this demon, the license law? The answer is now before you, its own workings upon society is ample proof of its birth place. Conceived in corruption, born in pollution, cradled in the lap. of carnality, and when this child became full grown with much pomp and splendor was placed by the carnal hand, upon our statute book. And his parents gave him the name. "License." The full name of its parents are legion, for they are many. And well do they feed and cloth their child.

And now, to every one whose eyes have passed over this article—I would say—resolve this moment upon reformation before you lay the paper out of your hands. Now is the day of salvation. Leave it not for to morrow or next day. But while the argument is clear, and the impression is fresh on your mind, and your judgment is convinced, your conscience awake, be persuaded, not almost, but altogether. The present moment may be the one which decides your destiny for ever. Do not go to yonder saloon on the corner for another drink. Promise your wife and children that the drink you took a few moments ago, (and make up your mind on your way home that shall be the last whiskey smelt by them on your breath) shall be the last ten cents taken from your family for drink. As you decide now upon abstinence, or continued indulgence, so may your character be, through life and eternity. Do this and stand fast to your promise. Do not give way when called upon by others to take a drink. Many are they who have fell in this manner. Spend your evenings at home with your wife and children. Their future prosperity depends on your confirmation of the resolution now formed and upon this also depends your own future happiness, not only here, but in that mansion promised all, who will accept Christ. If you have never prayed now is the time to do it. Go at once to your closet or room and receive at the hands of him who turns none empty away, (who hears the supplications of a contrite heart,) a pledge of eternal strength. You will then see more clearly the awful danger in which you had been engulphed. Turn not aside from this humble admonition.

Now is the time to flee from the adversary of your soul. The demon of death hath no greater medium of destruction, than the intoxicating cup, through and by which thousands upon thousands are daily being cast down to hell. Is this not awful to contemplate? But we cannot smother these facts. They are beyond all contradiction. The vending of ardent spirits cannot be carried on without guilt, nor can a petition praying for the granting of license be signed without guilt. The law of itself, is a curse to all nations, and the friends of God and humanity must unite in its overthrow. We will say more about the christians duty, on this subject in future.

Our Boys.

The dream of every boy, and especially every poor boy, is "When I am a man." There are croakers everywhere, who are always ready to say, "Ah! boy, your dreams are vain; your golden days are now; you will never be so happy as while you are a boy." Don't believe them boys. There is a beautiful, golden dreamland, full of grand possibilities—dreamland now, but all to be real to you by and by—that land is manhood. It is well for you to dream of "When I am a man." But be sure to remember that when any boy, be he poor or rich, wastes his time in dreaming, and fails to prepare himself for manhood, he is standing in his own light, and will be certain to have to suffer for his failure.

We know, by experience, what it is for a boy of fourteen to be thrown entirely upon his own resources, with no hope of ever obtaining a dollar or a favor in the world, except by the favor of God, and "by squarely earning it." We know what it means to "work at a trade" for three years, for board and thirty dollars for the first year, forty dollars for the second, and fifty dollars for the third year; in all, one hundred and twenty dollars for clothing and spending money, for three long years. We have not forgotten, and we have no desire to forget, the rough road from fourteen to twenty-one, and if any words or acts of ours can help to make smooth or more pleasant the same path for other poor and aspiring boys, we are fully repaid.

Where there are hundreds of boys whose boyish days are golden and joyous, and full of happiness and ease, there are thousands to whom the path of boyhood is a rough and rocky road, full of toil, trials and temptations. Many stumble and fall in the way. Many yearn for some one to give them just a little help, just a little good council, just a few kind words of encouragement; having these reinforcements they conquer, when without them they would fall. Thousands of brave boys are to-day fighting single handed a more terrible battle than Napoleon ever knew; while every one of them, whether poor or rich, is all the time looking forward into his glorious dreamland, and saying, "When I am a man."

Work on boys; fight on. Manhood is worth working for. It is worth waiting for. It is worth preparing for. See that you do prepare for it.

There is nothing like love in heaven or in the world. "Love is heaven, and heaven is love." But there are many kinds of heaven as well as many kinds of love. It is all as you are brought up. "Love in a cottage" is a nice th

THE SOLDIERS HOMESTEAD.

There is nothing that can make a man so independent, as to be a land owner. A man may have money, stocks or bonds; but these are all liable to take to themselves wings and fly away, or may be wrested from their possessor by the highwayman, the petty thief or the midnight assassin; but the lucky possessor of 160 acres of land, is as a general truth, sure of a good living, so long as he has health strength and a will to work. For what a man sows, that shall he reap.

Congress has done a nice thing for the soldiers—the noble defenders of our government. A Homestead for the soldier has been provided. In this the Republican party through its servants in Congress, has given another strong proof of its love for the defenders of our national life and honor. The soldiers should not forget the party which under all circumstances, stands by them.

The law of July 15th 1870, does not give any peculiar advantages to soldiers over others, except in case of actual occupation of the land, and then only in the amount of a certain kind of land that may be taken. This is right and proper, so far as it goes. The great object of Congress, being to prevent the speculators from imposing upon the soldier.

Every soldier can now have 160 acres of land, provided he is willing to settle on it. For this amount of land on the line of any of our great lines of Railroad he need only pay the expense of surveying—say $15 or $20.

Persons wishing to avail themselves of this great offer should make up their minds, to report at once to Capt. Isaac Lytle in the law office of Messrs. Wilson & Hutchison, Bellefonte Pa.

There is no reason why a colony of 500 soldiers should not be raised in this and adjoining counties. In union there is strength, and by men forming themselves into an organization or colony to go West and settle on the land which the Government gives them, they take with them, the church, the school house, the mill and the blacksmith shop, in a word they take with them civilization.

We hope the soldiers who intend to avail themselves of this offer, on the part of the Government, will loose no time in reporting to Capt. Lytle. In the mean time, we are informed that efforts will be made to have some liberal changes, in favor of the soldier, made during the next session of Congress.

We print an extract from the law as passed in July last, with some interesting facts, taken from the Claim Agent, a paper published monthly in Washington D. C. Read the article, and prepare to colonize.

HOMESTEAD ACT OF JULY 15, 1870.

[From the Claim Agent.]

We give below the amendment to the Homestead Act passed at the last session of Congress, accompanied with instructions from the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

This law will be of great benefit to our brave soldiers located in the West, or others emigrating to that region.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
GENERAL LAND OFFICE,
August, 9th, 1870.

GENTLEMEN: The following is the 25th section of the Act of Congress approved July 16, 1870, entitled "An Act making appropriations for the support of the Army for the year ending June 30, 1871, and for other purposes," viz:

"SEC. 25. And be it further enacted, That every private soldier and officer who has served in the Army of the United States, during the rebellion, for ninety days, and remained loyal to the Government, and every seaman, marine, and officer, or other person, who has served in the Navy of the United States, or Marine in the Corps, or revenue marine, during the rebellion, for ninety days, and remained loyal to the Government, shall, on payment of the fee or commission to any register or receiver of any land office required by law, be entitled to enter one quarter section of land, not mineral, of the alternate reserved sections of public lands along the lines of any one of the railroads or other public works in the United States wherever public lands have been or may be granted by Acts of Congress, and receive a patent therefor under and by virtue of the provisions of the act to secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain, and the acts amendatory thereof, and on the terms and conditions therein prescribed, and all the provisions of said Acts, except as herein modified, shall extend and be applicable to entries under this Act, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office is hereby authorized to prescribe the necessary rules and regulations to carry this section into effect, and determine all facts necessary therefor."

By these provisions, the Homestead Law of 20th May, 1862, and the acts amendatory thereof, are so far modified as to allow entries to be made by the parties mentioned therein, of the maximum quantity of one quarter section, or one hundred and sixty acres, of land held at the double minimum price of two dollars and fifty cents per acre, instead of one half quarter section, or eighty acres, as heretofore.

In case of a party desiring to avail himself thereof, you will require him to file the usual homestead application for the tract desired, if legally liable to entry, to make affidavit according to the form prescribed, and on his doing so, allow him to make payment of the ten dollar fee stipulated in the Act of 20th May, 1862, and the usual commissions on the price of the land at two dollars and fifty cents per acre, the entry to be regularly numbered and reported to this office in your monthly homestead returns.

Regarding settlement and cultivation, the requirements of the law in this class of entries are the same as in other homestead entries.

Very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JOS. S. WILSON,
Commissioner.

INTERESTING TO SOLDIERS—NEW HOMESTEAD LAW.

To answer the numerous inquiries addressed to the Interior Department, the following information is furnished respecting the act of July 15, 1870, granting additional rights to soldiers desiring to enter homesteads on lands within railroad limits:

Under the original act only eighty acres, at two dollars and fifty cents, of land could be entered as a homestead. By the amendatory act any honorably discharged soldier, who has served not less than ninety days in the military, naval, marine, or revenue marine service, during the rebellion, is entitled to enter as a homestead 160 acres of $2 50 land, upon payment of the legal fee of $10, and the usual commission on the cash value of the lands, allowed as compensation to the register and receiver.

The requirements as to personal residence upon and improvement and cultivation of the homestead selected, are not waived or altered in any respect, they being the fundamental condition upon which all the provisions of the original homestead law and the acts amendatory are based.

Below will be found a concise statement of requirements under the Homestead Law, and much valuable information.

The public land of the United States is surveyed or unsurveyed. All, unless specially reserved, is open to settlement and occupation by any citizen or white man who has declared his intention to become a citizen; and if unsurveyed, the settler will be permitted to obtain the land unless wanted for some public purpose. If it is not surveyed when he goes upon the land, he will get, not the tract he occupies, but 160 acres bounded by the lines run by the Government; which lines may not agree with his own.

The surveyed public lands are divided into townships six miles square; each township is divided into thirty-six sections, each a mile square and containing 640 acres; each section is divided into four quarter-quarters of 40 acres each. The township and section lines all run either north or south or east or west. The sections are always numbered in the same order, commencing with 1 on the northeast corner, running west to 6; section 7 is south of 6, and the numbers run east to 12, which is under 1; on the next row they run back to the west line, and so on back and forth. Thus the sections along the east line of the township running from north and south are 1, 12, 13, 24, 25, and 36; and on the west line commencing at the top and running south they are 6, 7, 18, 16, 30, and 31.

The public lands are disposed of by sale at auction, private entry, pre-emption, and homestead claim. After land is surveyed into sections, or sectionized, it is advertised for sale, and all that is not occupied by pre-emptors or homesteaders who have filed notice of their claims is sold to the highest bidder who bids $1. 25 per acre, or more. That which is not sold may be taken at private entry at $1.25 per acre, in such amounts as the purchasers want. Poor men usually get land by pre-emption or homestead claim.

The pre-emptor selects his quarter section of land, settles on it, within thirty days after his settlement files a declaratory statement in the United States Land Office that he has settled on it, builds a house, improves the land; and within one year from the settlement files an affidavit and proves by two witnesses that he has built a house and improved the land; and then on paying $1.25 per acre in greenbacks, or some Government warrant receivable for land gets a patent. If he settles on the land before it is offered for sale, he must pay up before the sale. Any adult white male who is or can become a citizen, and every white widow, who has not 320 acres of other land, and does not move from his or her land to the public land; can pre-empt once.

Homestead claims can be taken by any one entitled to be a pre-emptor.—The claim may be of 160 acres or less in legal subdivisions. The applicant goes upon the land; files his application; builds a house, and cultivates the land for five years; files an affidvit sustained by two witnesses of continuous residence and cultivation, and then gets his patent on payment of $22 fees if he has 160 acres, or $11 if he has so acres,—The land is not liable for debts contracted before settlement. If the person who has filed a homestead claim wishes to get a patent before the end of five years he can do so by paying as much as it would have been sold for to a purchaser who would not settle on it.

The declaratory statements need no witnesses; and the affidavits are all taken by the land officers without charge.

The chief expense is in going to the land office with two witnesses.

GENERAL CAMERON.

Just now, says the Telegraph, when a few disappointed, malignant and disorganizing spirits are trying their best to injure Simon Cameron in the estimation of the people, and lessen the political influence which he so worthily exercises in the Republican party, it is but justice to that distinguished gentleman to give occasionally an antidote to the poison of his enemies. There is no lack of Republican papers willing to take up the gauntlet in his defense, if defense were necessary. But so far his enemies have overshot the mark, and their attacks, false, coarse and virulent, have recoiled upon themselves. We commend to their attention, for the present, a brief article which we find in the Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin. That paper says with great truth and justice, "It has often been a subject of remark why it is that General Simon Cameron has so many warm friends throughout the state. We doubt if there is a man in Pennsylvania to day who has one half the friends he has.—The secret of his great strength in that respect lies simply in the fact that he never forgets an act of friendship, and always seeks an opportunity to reward whoever does him a favor. He has aided hundreds of young men to success in life by kind advice, if not by ready means. He makes it a point to so conduct himself that friends never desert him, and he is constantly making more as years crowd upon him. It was the reverse with Buchanan. He was always neglecting friends to capture enemies. The result was that he died with fewer friends, after a long career, than any man in the State. Simon Cameron will have more. Politicians possessed of any sagacity at all cannot find a more illustrious example to copy after, if they would become strong, than that set by the venerable Senator.

HAWK, HAWK, SPIT, SPIT, BLOW, BLOW, and disgust everybody with the offensive odor from your Catarrh, just because some old fogy doctor who has not discovered and will not believe that the world moves, tells you that it cannot be cured. The proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay $500 reward for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure. Sold by druggists, or send sixty cents to R. V. Pierce, M. D., 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., for it. A pamphlet free. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. Remember that the Genuine has Dr. Pierce's private Government Stamp upon each package. This Stamp issued by the United States Government expressly for stamping Dr. Pierce's medicines, has his portrait, name and address, engraved upon it, and need not be mistaken.

—A Berlin dispatch says St. Cloud is a total ruin. All the pictures and tapestry have been destroyed by the fire from the forts.

The Juniata Republican complains that the Senatorial ticket in that district was defeated pretty much as ours was—by perfidy. It appears that bolting and treachery has been contageous in the central part of the State, or else there has been a mutual understanding among the disaffected, or a conspiracy to defeat the Legislative ticket. Well, our party, perhaps, will be the healthier if such fungi are trimmed off. True, their removal may cause sore spots for a time, but these will ultimately heal up and the great tree of Republicanism will bear better fruit than ever. If our party will only let such bolters drop unnoticed and uncared for, without attempting to call them back to betray us again, we have reason to believe that all will be well.—Lewisburg Chronicle.

We have heard it stated that prominent among those who traitorously aided in the defeat of a Republican Senator and three representatives in the Union district was Eli Slifer of Lewisburg, a man who is indebted to the Republican party for everthing he has been; and in this district two senators and two representatives by the treachery of Col. J. K. Robinson, late Senator from this district; In Perry county, of an old officeholder and office hunter, too contemptible now to be even named; and in Huntingdon by a few would-be great men, more noted for trickery than honesty.—Lewistown Gazette.

Macy has furnished a sea story in his own peculiar vein. Stephens gives us "An Evening with a Catamount." Darling tells us "Why our Wedding was Postponed," in his most comical manner, and then there is a Christmas story, full of humanity and goodness, and three or four love stories which will bear perusal half a dozen times, and "Lost and Found" is a regular California tale, by a new aspirant for fame in the columns of Ballou. In addition to this there are many articles worth reading, in the shape of sketches, poetry, etc., etc., and all for the sum of 15 cents per copy, or $1,50 per year. LOCAL ITEMS.

Good Oysters at Ronian's every day.

BUTTER.—Butter is now selling at 35 cents per lb. We presume our farmers will not growl at this. We wish they would make more of it.

CELERY.—Our thanks are due Wm. J. Kealsh Esq., for a fine lot of celery.—It was raised by Mr. Kealsh himself and is exceedingly fine. He has over 1000 roots.

VICE PRESIDENT.—We are pleased to learn that our fellow townsman Gen. Jas. A. Beaver was elected Vice Presi dent of the State organization of the Y. M. C. A., at its recent session, held in Scranton. Higher honers await the General.

FOR SALE.—A valuable Hotel property for sale, in Central City, with all the modern improvements. It is one of the best stands both for store and hotel in Central Pennsylvania. For further particulars apply at the office of the Bellefonte REPUBLICAN. n42tf.

A TERRIBLE BORE.—The inside of a fifteen inch gun. So says some one: but that is nothing to be compared to the bore of the locals in the Tyrone Herald. Brainerd has always a diarhea of words; but a constipation of ideas. He will never be troubled with brain fever.

FUN TO-NIGHT.—Don't fail to see Delehanty, Hengler and Bloodgood's Mammoth Combination, at Reynolds' Hall, this (Wednesday) eve., Nov. 16—the Phunniegraphic Sensation of the Period. Two hours and a half of uninterrupted Mirth, Music and Mimicry. Go and see the cluster of brilliant stars.

It will be cheering intelligence to the farmers of Mifflin and Centre counties, to learn that John Barger, Esq., is about to resume the manufacture of the celebrated Bar-Share Plow, formerly manufactured by Barger & Hoopes, at Milroy, Pa. This plow is too well known by the farmers of these counties to need any recommendation at our hands. Send in your orders early, as only a limited number will be ready for sale by the 1st of March, 1871. Address all order to John Barger, Milroy, Pa. See advertisement in another column.

STOVES, HEATERS &c.—The information which we last received from Mr. Isaac Haupt, was to the effect that it was impossible for him, at his new stove and tin store, to supply the demand which is daily made upon him for Spears Stoves, Heaters &c. We have stored at his place a magnificent heater, which we are exceedingly anxious Mr. Haupt should sell. It is in good trim and would be cheap at $50,00. Isaac is an energetic, industrious man, and deserves the great success with which he is meeting. It may be that his success depends upon the character of the stoves, he keeps. If so, he will soon sell our heater. It can only be beaten, by Spears Anti Dusters.

THE HOUSEHOLD ANGEL.—According to the last census Centre county numbers over 34,000 inhabitants, a gain of nearly 8,000 in the past ten years. Our county is healthful, our people wealthy happy and contented, and there is not a household, or the head of a family in the county that cannot fully appreciate the following beautiful lines:

Every household has its angel
Hovering watchful around the hearth,
Guiding through the parent's teaching,
Smiling 'mid the children's mirth,
Whispering to the baby sleeping,
Singing with the cradle song;
Near in fortune kindly weeping,
Chiding when regretting wrong.

Every household has its angel
In the sweet and gentle wife.
Shedding dews of love around her,
Beaming like a star of life,
Patient in her heart's distresses,
Loving in affliction's hour,
Constant in her sorest trials,
Blessing home with love's fair flower.

NOVEMBER is the month to prune grape vines. The work should be done on principles well understood. No person who has not had experience in grape growing should be allowed to prune vines. We have seen many vines ruined by persons who did not understand their business. All the bearing wood of 1871 has grown in 1870; and it is the most mature canes that have grown this year that will bear fruit next season. Cut away all the old wood where it is evident that there is too much of it; then cut away all wood of late, immature growth; also cut of the ends of all canes left to bear fruit, some more and some less, according to the space that you want them to occupy and you prune your vines about right.

A NEAT IMPROVEMENT.—It always affords us pleasure to chronicle the success, of our wide-awake clerks, and mechanics, or the improvement of our town. A county and its people are judged, to a greater or less degree by the character and appearance of the County Seat, or town. Much as Meek in his Watchman denounces the town and howls hard times, it nevertheless continues to improve. Fully fifty neat and comfortable homes have been erected or finished during the last summer. Nearly all of which have been erected by daily laborers, clerks, or mechanics, who have heretofore, lived in rented houses. They now live in their own comfortable homes. At present we have only space to mention, the double house erected by our enterprising friends D. H. Rhuel and Samuel Galt. These men purchased a lot from Dr. J. D. Wingate near the Phœnix Mills on the Lewistown turnpike, but in the borough, and are now living as happy as two Kings in their own neat and pleasant homes. What folly for Meek to be constantly howling hard times, with such evidence of prosperity all around us. Mr. Rhuel's pleasant face can always be seen, during business hours, at his post, behind the counter, in Hoffer & Brother's store.

OBITUARY.—Thadeus Pitman Stephens, was born at Warriors Mark Huntingdon county, Pa., October 16th 1839, and was consequently, at his death thirty one years and nineteen days old.

His early life was spent on his fathers farm, near Centre Line, this county. At the age of seventeen he was sent to Cassville Seminary in Huntington Co. After graduating there he entered Jefferson College in the year 1860, where he remained until the spring of 62 at which time he enlisted, with a company composed of the students of the college, in the 49th Regiment Pa., Vols. In the fall of the same year his health having failed, he was honorably discharged and returned home. The congenial influences of home and the kindly care of his noble mother assisted much in restoring him to health, and in 1864 he entered the law department of Harvard University. After graduating, he returned home and commenced the practice of law in Bellefonte. A short time afterwards his name appeared as associate editor of the Central Press, and when that paper was merged into the Bellefonte National, he assumed its entire editorial control.

In 1868 he was the candidate of the Republican party for District Attorney. After the election he returned home and remained with his father, who was in ill health, until his father's death. Since that time he has been engaged in settling his fathers estate, until the last few months preceding his death.

In Thadeus P. Stephens there was a queer combination of all the noble qualities united in manhood. Possessed of far more than ordinary intellect and an inherent love for learning, his school days were spent in a manner that reflected credit on his after life.

The practice of law was not to his taste and he abandoned it, for the more congenial duties of journalism. As a writer he was forcible and witty. His powers of imagination and observation were extraordinary. His productions were always the reflection of a mind well stored with knowledge, possessed of liberal views, and a spirit of progression. But in no sphere was he more appreciated than in the social circle. His conversational qualities won for him, hosts of friends and admirers. "He is the best talker I ever saw" was the common estimate of all who knew him. His witty remarks and original ideas will long be remembered.

His ailment was disease of the heart. During his sickness he did not suffer much pain, and on the evening of Saturday October the fifth, he sunk to sleep in death "like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him, and lies down to peaceful dreams."

SPRING MILLS, Nov. 6, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:

The Spring Mills Union Sunday School have had a very pleasant re-union here to-day.

The school has been unusually prosperous and numbers about one hundred, pupils and teachers. It is composed of members of all the various religious denominations of the neighborhood and they get on with the utmost harmony and good feeling. In fact the different sects here attend each others churches and prayer-meetings as a rule, and furnish an example of some value to us.

On this day there were distributed at the close of the usual exercises a large number of Prizes, consisting of neatly bound Bibles, and other books of appropriate character, and also a small book of proper character to each of the little folks as a gift. The Prizes were given for punctuality and for proficiency in committing Scripture verses.

After the distribution of prizes and gifts was concluded, A. J. Young, Esq., approached Mr. Peter Wilson, Superintendent and presented him with an elegant Malacca Cane with ivory handle and silver band appropriately inscribed, and to Mr. R. H. Duncan, Librarian, two handsome pictures of appropriate design. These gifts were made by the teachers of the school. Mr. Wilson was taken utterly by surprise and yet responded to the remarks of Mr. Young with much feeling and in very appropriate terms. Mr. Duncan simply returned his thanks for this mark of their favor and friendship.

The following are the inscriptions on the silver band of the cane, and on the pictures:

Presented to P. Wilson, by the Teachers of Spring Mills U. S. S.

Presented to R. H. Duncan, by the Teachers of Spring Mills U. S. S.

The following are the remarks of Mr. Young:

MR. WILSON—I have the honor in behalf of the Teachers of the Spring Mills Union Sabbath School, of presenting you with this cane, in token of our esteem for you personally, and our high appreciation of your services as Superintendent.

Your example in punctuality and faithful discharge of duty contributed greatly to the success of our school, and is well worthy of imitation. Whilst you lean upon this staff may you have many pleasant recollections of the sustaining grace you have received from Him in whom you have put your trust—having the cheering assurance that He is the same, yesterday, to-day and forever.

MR. DUNCAN—I have the honor also of presenting to you, in behalf of the same, these engravings—"Rock of Ages" and "Blessed are the pure in heart"—in token of the same feelings of regard for you personally and our appreciation of your services as Librarian. Your prompt and systematic performance of your duty as such, we believe contributed largely to the good order and success of the school.

May the theme suggested by "Rock of Ages" awaken in us the earnest desire of the Psalmist —"Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I."

SPECTATOR.

At a meeting of Centre Lodge, No. 153, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, held at Bellefonte, on Thursday evening, November 10th, 1870, Geo. M. Yocum, George W. Patton and Isaac Lytle, were appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiments of this Lodge upon the death of our late brother Thadeus Pitman Stephens who made the following report which was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in His wise providence to remove from our midst our esteemed brother Thadeus Pitman Stephens, in the prime of early manhood, thus severing all the fond relations which our association had engendered; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Thadeus Pitman Stephens, our order has lost an honored member whose brilliant parts and finished education reflected high credit upon our association; his family have lost a devoted son and an effectionate brother, and society one of its brightest ornaments.

Resolved, That in the strict integrity and high sense of honor, the genial courtesy and charitable forbearance, the uniform cheerfulness and uncomplaining submission which marked our brother in life as well as in the solemn hour of death, our lodge has a bright example of the true gentleman and christian philosopher.

Resolved, That we render to his bereaved relatives and friends, our heartfelt sympathy in this their deep affliction, and with them we would bow in humble submission to the will of Him who is too wise to err and too good to be unkind.

Resolved, That as a further token of our respect for the memory of the deceased, this Lodge be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days that these resolutions be entered of record upon the minutes of this lodge, and published in the several newspapers of this town and that a fairly engrossed copy of the same, under the seal of the Lodge be furnished to the family of the deceased.

THE EDITOR AMONG THE HOGS AGAIN.—We would not take up so much of our space, talking about hogs, only for the reason, that we feel and know, that the farmers of Centre county, and of Central Pennsylvania, have not devoted as much of their attention to this subject as they should have done. There is money in raising and feeding hogs. Our opinion is, that the farmer who hauls his corn 10 or 15 miles to market, and sells it at the market price, makes a mistake, and that he would clear double the money if he would feed his corn to his own hogs, butcher and bring them to market. We do not wish to adduce our opinions as imperative; but if we can awaken a spirit of discussion our point is gained. If men living in Bellefonte, who buy every mouthful of feed, which their hogs use, can do so, and save money by it, why is it, that our farmers, who raise their own feed, cannot make the hog business pay?

We think that it would pay our farmers, to call and see the hogs of Wm. S. Tripple, They are beauties and show what a little feed, time and attention will do for hogs.

Then go to the pen of John McDermott, and there see so much of the hog—more of the genuine article, than you can see anywhere outside the sanctum of the Centre Hall Reporter, and you will be convinced, that there is both money and pleasure in raising and feeding hogs.

Bejamin Schrock, has a fine pen full. Ben is a good blacksmith—exceedingly hard to beat in this country; but he has made a specialty of raising hogs, and in this branch has few if any superiors. It has been suggested to us, that even Jno. H. Orvis, Esq., President of the Centre county Agricultural Society, frequently consults Mr. Schrock in this branch of business. Orvis has fine stock; but he has nothing to beat the great hogs owned by Mr. Schrock.

But as we travel on we come to the pen of Cyrus Strickland. Here we find two of as fine hogs, of their age, as can be seen anywhere. They are superior to P. G. Meek in this, that they are just what they claim to be. They wallow in their own filth, like Sam. Josephs, and every time they root or grunt they seem to say that Sam Josephs and P. G. Meek are superior to them, in just so much, as they fail to devour everything and everybody who hang around Harrisburg during the Legislative session. The pens of each vary in proportion, to the estimate in which each is held; but the mission, the nature, and character of each do not differ much for the reason, that all are ready to take all they can get and squeal for more. We pity Meek and Sam Josephs, because they cannot help it, while Stricks hogs do not need our sympathy for the reason, that they are what nature designed they should be. Cyrus Strickland's hogs will weigh 800 lbs. Sam Josephs and Meek combined will not go over 350 lbs.

We cannot close this chapter on hogs, without refering to the "Sleeping beauties" of C. W. Lambert, Proprietor of the Sunny Side Gardens. Wesley has three, really beautiful hogs. It would do the farmers of Benner township good, to call and see them. "Sleeping beauties:" They are well named, for they are too fat to remain awake. They never squeal. We hope that Burns and Sam Josephs and all that ilk, will soon get what they are after—a surfeit—and cease to squeal; but as to Meek we have little hope, we believe he will squeal after he is dead. Whether this is so or not Wesley Lambert's 3 hogs is good for 1200 lbs. We may have more to say on the hog question next week.

CORRESPONDENCE.—The following correspondence will explain itself.—Some of our readers may think there is a little cheek in our letter, of this we are not quite so certain; but one thing we are sure of; to wit: there is a hat in it. W. F. Warburton is said to be the best hatter in Philadelphia or in the State, and we believe he is, and we are right sure if our readers will call and see our new hat, they will agree with us, and hereafter buy all their hats from W. F. Warburton:

OFFICE OF THE "BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN,"
BELLEFONTE, PA., Nov. 7th, 1870.

WM. F. WARBURTON, Esq., 430 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

My Dear Sir:—I stepped into the Law office of Hon. Wm. P. Wilson, a few mornings since, and while there I picked up one of your cards containing your likeness. Now in regard to the likeness, I am compelled to say that it is really pretty. From the large forehead, Roman nose, Grecian mouth and Poetic eye, I am fully convinced that the original is better than the picture, and that you understand your business and know how to sell hats.

At the top of the card, I discover, the following "Solicitous of Patronage." Now if this is really so, and I would not doubt your word for a moment, you will want an advertisement in the Bellefonte Republican. Our circulation is over 2400. Our town and county are rich in every sense of the word and according to the last census number over 34,000 inhabitants, without a hatter in the county. Like you we are. "Solicitous of Patronage." We think it will pay you well to insert advertisement in the Republican.

A few good local notices would increase your trade here amazingly. The measure of my head, (I have not a Photograph to send you; but the ladies say I am a handsome man) is 7¼ small or 7⅝ large. Do you understand? Please let us hear from you. You will see our yearly terms per column at the top of this letter.

Very respectfully, &c.,
W. W. BROWN, Ed. Republican.

PHILADELPHIA, November 8th 1870.

W. W. BROWN, Esq., Editor "Bellefonte Republican:"

Dear Sir:—I surrender—"take the hat"—you deserve it. Adams Express will bring it to you in a few days. A head so discerning must have special efforts made to cover it properly—in a word one of "Warburton's Inimitable Coverings" for such a head is the only proper thing.

Very truly yours,
W. F. WARBURTON.

PHILADELPHIA, November 11th, 1870.

Dear Sir:—Your hat has been forwarded this morning. I hope you will have pleasure in wearing it. Your esteemed favor of the 9th, is at hand. Having now sowed good seed on good ground,—I patiently and hopefully await good results.

Very truly yours,
W. F. WARBURTON.

BELLEFONTE, PA., Nov. 12th, 1870.

W. F. WARBURTON, Esq., 430 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

My Dear Sir:—The hat came to-day in the best of order, and oh! what a hat. We are happy to inform you that you have "sowed good seed on good ground," and you may expect to reap an hundred fold. The citizens of Centre Pennsylvania will hereafter, refuse to be humbugged and will only be satisfied when wearing Warburton's best and most fashionable hats. As for myself my mind is made up. I am perfectly happy. No boy was ever better pleased with a pop-gun or a rattle. We care little what becomes of the world—France, Prussia, England, Russia. They are all upside down to-day; but our "hat" sets easy on our head, and we are satisfied that Bismark never wore a better one. We do not mean our head; but our hat.

"Empires to-day are upside down,
The castle kneels before the town,
The Monarch fears a printers frown—
A brickbats range."

But give me in preference to a crown, or all the glory achieved by King William, one of "Warburton's Inimitable' hats. What a perfect beauty it is. We have invited all our male readers to call at our office and see it.

Very respectfully,
W. W. BROWN.

John R. Bowen, Esq., Assessor U S. Revenue, 18th District, Pa.

Public servants are more frequently the subjects of criticism than of commendation. It is very rarely that a public officer or servant escapes criticism, and receives his due meed of praise. The American people are, indeed, a little peculiar in this respect. If a man proves himself to be a good and faithful officer, it is too often the case that our public journals, leading men and citizens fail to commend him for his faithfulness, industry and integrity in office; but on the other hand if he make but one single mis-step, the whole pack, "Tray, Blanche, Sweetheart and all" are let loose upon him to hound him down, and perhaps ruin his reputation forever.

We, as Americans, are quick to condemn; but slow to commend. This should not be so. A good public servant is a great public blessing, and should be held up by the press and by the people, as an example to others, to our children, to posterity. The opinions of the people in like measure follow fast on their well ascertained deeds. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

In this view of the case, we confess ourselves greatly at fault. Months, ago, we had the facts before us, clearly demonstrating that the public servant, whose name heads this article, has been a faithful, vigilant, courteous officer—fully alive, in advancing the interests of Uncle Sam, yet not exacting one cent not clearly his due.

Mr. Bowen is peculiarly a business man—his success in life fully attests his capacity in this respect. But as facts and figures speak louder, than words we submit them.

From May 1st 1868, to April 30th 1869, before Mr. B. took the office—amount assessed	$136,987,51
with 14 Assessors
From May 1st 1869, to April 30th 1870 amount assessed	154,225,35
Assessors reduced from 14 to 10.
Increase	$17,242,84
Increase 13 per cent.
Excluding the items of spirits and Penalties the increase is	$18,517,38
The Increase is 15 per cent.
Add to this a saving of pay of 4 Assessors at about $90 per month $360.
12 months	4,320,00
	$22,837,00

What can we say, with these facts and figures before us that would, or could in the smallest particular, add to the reputation of this excellent man and officer. Everything in his power, has been done, to secure the reduction of taxation and the faithful application of all monies collected.

A further reduction of his force of Assistant Assessors from 10 to 5, we are informed has just been arranged, and his District is now constituted as follows.

1st	Division	Centre Co. Jas. H. Rankin.
2nd	"	Clinton Co., Wm. Fearon,
3d	" ½	Lycoming Co., A. Branin.
4th	" ½	Lycoming Co., R. Bennett.
5th	"	Tioga & Potter, M. Bullard.

This change as will be seen dispenses with the services of that excellent officer, and our true friend A. J. Young, Esq. We are sorry that this is so, but happy to learn that it was only necessary, in consequence of the great efforts of Mr. Bowen and the National Administration to economise the public monies, and pay off the national debt. Higher honors await Mr. Young, while the people of all political parties commend Mr. Bowen in the faithful performance of his duties.

THE BOYS.—The heart of the editor of an exchange has been melted with pity, and he bursts out as follows:

"We have been requested to say a word against the practice of allowing boys of from ten to fifteen years of age to go yelling around our streets at night, upsetting boxes, slamming doors, etc., as their actions are becoming a decided nuisance. If these boys haven't any parents or guardians to look after them, for any times where they can spend their evening, our sanctum is always well warmed and lighted, and we invite them to come and see us, promising to do our best to make up for home comforts denied them."

That Editor we venture, has a heart big, and warm, tender and good; but withal has lived, and said and wrote, and philosophised, and looked and winked at the pretty girls, until he has become cold as an iceburg all except his heart, and is an old batchelor, without any one to love, and without a child he dare call his own.

We love the boys and would do anything in our power to make them comfortable and happy. We will take them into our sanctum, we will speak words of kindness, we will bid them a hearty God speed, and furnish them, as pleasant accommodations as our circumstances will admit of, and the editor above referred to can do no more. We think however if this batchelor editor, (and it was Brainerd of the Herald no doubt) had a few children of his own, he would learn in a very short time the difference, between theory and practice. Boys keep off the street at night.

TWO ENGINES.—We say Engines not "Ingens." We have two engines for sale, and we want to sell them. We offer them very low, with a hope that some person will come and buy. We have two engines. Three horse power. They were both built by H. D. Landis, Master Mechanic of the B. & S. S. R. R. Co. Mr. Landis has few, if any superiors as a mechanic His work always recommends itself.

The one engine, has boiler and all the fixtures complete. Is in nearly as good condition as new, and is therefore in the best of running order. The other is entirely new, has never been in use. There is no boiler with this engine. They are both the same size, and we will give the purchaser the choice of either engine. The boiler will suit for either. Price for the two $450. Price for either with boiler $350.

WARNING TO BUTCHERS.—A butcher in one of the western counties met with a singular accident the other day. He had killed a steer, and was attempting to bleed him, when the animal in an expiring struggle struck the knife with his horn, and the blade was driven into the butchers arm, completely severing the main artery above the elbow. The man would have bled to death in five minutes, but with striking presence of mind he clasped his arm above the artery and compressed it firmly until assistance arrived and it was properly bandaged.—Ex.

WE invite attention to the advertisement in another column, of THE GREAT AMERICAN TEA CO., of NEW YORK City. The hint to parties to get up clubs for their goods is worthy of notice. This company has been established for ten years, and their numerous patrons give them full credit for reliability, promptness and fair dealings, and all testify to the excellent quality and low prices of their goods. As they warrant all their goods to give satisfaction or refund the money and expenses, no risk is run in sending them an order.

ACCIDENT.—An old man by the name of Rarich, who lives a short distance below town on the Jacksonville road, left this place with his team yesterday evening, for his home. When near the Cemetry he fell, or was thrown, out of his wagon and severely injured. His head was cut, in two or three places, and one ear, we understand was nearly cut off. Dr. Larimer dressed his wounds and at the present writing Mr. Rarich is doing well.

THE estate of the late Hon. John C. Kunkle, of Harrisburg; is reported at $500,000. By his will, ninety thousand dollars are given to his brother and sisters; ten thousand to the poor of Harrisburg; one thousand to the home of the Friendless, and one thousand dollars to the Orphan's Home at Womesdorf. The remainder of his estate is divided between his widow and two children.

LOSS OF APPETITE AND DEBILITY.—Of all the tonic preparations now in market we know of none equal to Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters" for those who suffer either from over mental or physical exertion, resulting in loss of appetite, and consequent debility.

Sold by Druggists.

DIED.

Farm and Household.

Wednesday Morning Nov. 16, 1870.

Household Recipes.

SPICED BEEF.—Boil a shin of ten or twelve pounds of beef until the meat readily falls from the bone. Pick the meat to pieces and mash the gristle very fine, rejecting all parts that are too hard to mash. Set the liquor in which it was boiled, away till cool; then take off all the fat. Boil the liquer down to a pint and a half; then return the meat to the liquor, and while hot add any salt and pepper that may be needed, a half teaspoonful of cloves, the same of cinnamon, a little nutmeg, a half spoonful of parsley, chopped fine, a very little sage and summer savory, if agreeable—not quite half of a salt spoonful. Let it boil up once, and put it into a mould or deep dish to cool. Cut in thin slices for breakfast or tea.

MIXTURE FOR CLEANING FURNITURE.—Cold drawn linseed oil, 1 quart: gin, or spirit of wine, half a pint; vinegar, half a pint: butter of antimony 2 ounces; spirits of turpentine, half a pint. N. B.—This mixture requires to be well shaken before used. A little of it is then to be poured upon a rubber, which must be well applied to the surface of the furniture; several applications will be necessary for new furniture, or for such as had previously been French polished or rubbed with beeswax.

GOOD CREAM.—One teacup of milk and a heaped tablespoonful of corn starch stirred free from lumps; two tablespoonfuls of sugar, and some flavoring. Set the basin containing it into some boiling water, and stir till it thickens; put between the cakes before it cools. 2. A large cup of milk set into hot water till it boils; three beaten eggs and three tablespoonfuls of sugar. A cup of cocoanut or blanched almonds may be added.

OATMEAL GRUEL.—Put a cup of raisens in a cup of water and boil hard half an hour. Mix two tablespoonful of oatmeal with a little cold water and salt, and stir it with the raisens. Let it boil up and skim it well. Sweeten with white sugar and add a little nutmeg. Tis very nourishing.

MOLASSES CANDY.—Take two cups of molasses, one of sugar, one table. spoonful of vinegar, and a piece of butter the size of a walnut. Boil briskly and constantly twenty minutes, stirring all the time; when cool enough to pull, do it quickly, and it will become white rapidly.

TO IMPROVE STARCH.—To each bowl of starch add one teaspoonful of Epsom salts, and dissolve in the usual way by boiling. Articles starched with this will be stiffer, and will be rendered to a certain degree fire proof. All who use kerosene oil should give the above a trial.

BREAKFAST FRITTERS.—One teacup of sweet milk, three eggs, a pinch of salt, the same of soda, and flour to make a thickish batter: fry until a light brown. Serve with a syrup or melted coffee-sugar.

DELICATE CAKE.—The whites of four eggs, well beaten, one cup of sugar, one cup of flour, one half cup of sweet milk, three tablespoonfuls of butter, one teaspoonful of soda, and three of cream of tartar.

GREEN CORN FRITTERS.—One pint grated corn, one small cup of butter, one egg, a teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of flour, a little pepper.—Drop on a buttered pan and bake or fry ten minutes.

TART CRUST.—One cup of lard, one tablespoonful of white sugar, white of one egg, three tablespoonfuls of water, flour sufficient to roll out. If you love nice tart crust, try it.

HORSES.—Groom once a day. Stable at nights: if not in use, let them have the run of a brush pasture by day. When grass and bushes never give more than a bucket of water, or three quarts of oats if the horse is soon to be used. Feed well half an hour after he comes in warm. Never let a horse cool off in the wind. Throw a big woolen blanket over him; throw back half at a time to rub him down; replace it and let him stand until cool and dry; then cover with a linen duster, to keep his coat clean. A horse is better off during severest nights with a duster on him, than warmly blanketed.

SULPHUR FOR LICE ON CATTLE.—How shall we kill lice on our cattle? I have tried almost all the panaceas I have seen recommended. Some of them have proved beneficial, while others, kerosene oil, for instance, were worse than the disease. I have settled upon the following, which has proved entirely satisfactory to me.—Fill the hair full of sulphur, rubbing it in thoroughly with the hand; and give the animal a little internally, with its meal or salt. Two or three applications have always effected a cure.—New England Farmer.

COWS.—Feed the sound leaves of cabbages and plants that fail to head, and also the tops of any of the root crops. Those calving at this time should have succulant food, pumpkins and roots, with oil cake. This will give them plenty of milk, and the flow may be easily maintained. They should have warm stables and a sunny yard. Cows in full milk cannot eat too much of proper food. If they grow fat upon it, it is pretty sure evidence that they are better fit for the shamble then for the dairy.

CORN FODDER.—After the corn is fit to husk, the quicker the job is done and the fodder stacked, the better. We would quite as lief feed cornstalks out of a stack of Jersey bar, rack, as those stored in a barn, provided the stack is well made. No more than a foot of the buts should be exposed to the weather, and the top "pointed off" with good rye straw. It will take several bundles to top a big stack as it should be.

A perfect petrified seal was exhumed lately from a mine near Wadsworth, Nevada, at a point five thousand feet above the level of the sea.

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERG'S.

Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now complete connections made,
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedy and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's store.

People who travel by other routes, and also people who, instead of travelling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest price.

Do not fail to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere; if you do not, we are sure you will be sorry that you did not. Our goods are put down to the lowest figure. We sell whole suits, according to quality,

RANGING FROM $6.50 to $18.00

—the very best.

Medical.

MANHOOD

In the Young and Rising Generation-

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lackjustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption! The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.
